Ref:10/800,245—"Transmission Drive Line for Analog Electric Signals"

Dear Sirs:

1) Please find attached corrected drawings as requested .

2) I have noted that the first named applicant is recorded as "Doug Collins" This is incorrect . It should be William J. Walsh. It seems that my application file number has been confused with that of a Mr.Collins who has an application for "Method for processing oxide-confined VCSEL semiconductor devices." Please make this correction.

Sincerely,

William J. Walsh
